

Westpay signs agreement with Menigo

Westpay AB, a leading fintech company, expands its reach and footprint on the Swedish payment market. Menigo and Westpay have signed an agreement that will make Westpay's suite of payment services available to their customers.

- Menigo is a food supplier for anyone active within restaurant and catering. They are well known and set the standard within their vertical. I am very pleased that Westpay managed to attract a partner known for their high demands, says Jeanette Svedjeholm, CSO at Westpay.

Menigo is one of Sweden's leading wholesaler and supplier to restaurants – both in the private and the public sectors. Menigo has 1200 employees serving more than 15 000 customers in Sweden.

- Menigo strives to attract the best partners and suppliers for our customers. Having a qualified, reliable and future proof payment solution is no exception. Westpay has a strong offering and a good track record. I am looking forward to adding their solution to our partner program Menigo Partner, says Saif Abdu-Rahman, Concepts & Partnerships Manager at Menigo Foodservice AB.

Westpays offering is being launched by Menigo during Q2 2023.
